LONG LEGS and TALL TALES

a showgirl's wacky, sexy journey to the Playboy Mansion and the Radio City Rockettes

Imagine transforming from a naïve, goodie two-shoes, Midwestern bumpkin to a sexy showgirl supreme performing with the world-famous Radio City Rockettes. Author Kristi Lynn Davis did just that, logging in about 1,200 performances and 240,000 kicks with the legendary precision dance troupe.

And that's not all. She also traveled the globe with the steamy Playboy's Girls of Rock and Roll, sailed to exotic ports of call as a singer-dancer on luxurious cruise ships, and graced the stage in musical theatre productions with showbiz icons Susan Anton, Buddy Ebsen, Maurice Hines, Jack Jones, Paige O'Hara, Juliet Prowse, Rip Taylor, and others. She even shook her tail feathers for former President Bill Clinton.

Now Kristi invites you backstage and into her dressing room where she reveals how she survived and thrived in the wild and wonderful world of entertainment. Whether you're an aspiring performer or a theatre lover who gets a kick out of showbiz shenanigans, secrets, and sizzle, this book will inspire you to light your spark, pursue your passion, and shine brightly as the star you truly are.

"I laughed and I cried and I couldn't put it down!"

—PAIGE O'HARA, BELLE IN DISNEY'S BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

"High kicks of praise for this behind-the-scenes memoir by the star who inspired me to follow my dreams! A must-read for anyone with show business aspirations or a dancing career in the making, as well as those curious about the life of a professional entertainer. I didn't want it to end."
